

THE AUDIO SUITE

Situated just 800 metres from the city-centre's fabulous new Bull Ring complex, and within a short distance of Birmingham's New Street and Moor Street stations, getting here couldn't be easier. From the south via the M40, we are a comfortable drive from London; Junction 6 of the M6 is just minutes away if approaching from the north or east. Our car park is situated half-way along Allcock Street, directly opposite our front door.

Birmingham International Airport is less than half an hour away by taxi, and if all other methods of transport fail, it's worth noting that we are only a few yards from the National Express Coach terminus!
